This is a list of texts which I have come across in the course of my PhD research (see <http://www.islandvulnerability.org/fiji.html#meheuxphd>). The texts are predominantly related to disasters in Fiji, however, there are a few which have a broader Pacific-wide focus. I have also included a few texts that focus on climate change in the Pacific.

Benson, C. (1997) The economic impact of natural disasters in the Fiji. Overseas Development Institute Working Paper, Working Paper 97, Overseas Development Institute, London.
